Section B: A Few Words about the College

Krishnagar Women's College was established in the year 1958 for the purpose of promoting Women's Education in and around Krishnagar. From its inception this College has been performing its duties with utmost efficiency. The Institution not only boasts of a beautiful campus, but also has a very well stocked library, Network Resource Centre, safe and hygienic hostel for students, expansive playground, Gymnasium and attractive sports facilities. The College is efficiently administered by the first transgender Principal (see Fig. 1& 2) and the Governing Body, members of which are elected periodically. The College was previously affiliated to the University of Calcutta. In the year 2000 it came under the aegis of the University of Kalyani. The College has been accredited by NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) in 2005 with B++ Grade. The College has also been awarded Certificate of Excellence with A+ grade in NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS CAMPAIGN: 2010-11 on BIO DIVERSITY CONSERVATION in the State of West Bengal and has been placed in 1st position in the overall performance category. The College is trying to cater to the needs of the students and offer facilities for their enrichment of knowledge and growth in every field.

India gets its 1st transgender college principal

By Debasish Dasgupta

Kolkata: India, or probably the world, will get its first transgender college principal when Manabi Bandopadhyay takes charge of Krishnagar Women's College in West Bengal on June 9. Manabi is currently assistant professor of Bengali at Vivekananda Institute of Mahabubnagar.

"This decision was taken by the College Service Committee. I don't interfere in their decisions. They are aware of our operations. I am happy with this decision," says education minister Partha Chatterjee.

body said: "We were in need of a principal with strong personality to run the college smoothly."

Welcoming the decision, Ranjan Lal Hengoo, vice-chancellor of Bahamani University to which Krishnagar Women's College is affiliated, said, "Manabi is a fine woman, being a good administrator and an able administrator. We are hopeful her appointment will empower other members of the transgender community."

On Tuesday morning, Manabi visited the college, sporting flat-lens glasses and curly hair done up in a carefree confidence. Accompanied by her adopted son Debashish Dasgupta and transgender friend Jyoti Kamran, she was welcomed by the excited crowd around her. "It is not the post that I sought after. My 10-year-old daughter lives in Mumbai. I took up this job because it will help me stay close by and look after him. My new colleagues had no opinion on television but I had only heard their voices. I wanted to meet them personally before joining," she said.

A beaming Debasish said:

"Manabi wanted to put a stamp on it. So, we tagged along."

Colleagues and students are excited. "Manabi Bandopadhyay is a strong individual. She has faced many upheavals. We are optimistic about the development of the college due to her tenure. She is a role model and her sexual orientation isn't an issue for us," said Assistant Professor Manabi.

Deputy assistant professor Prakash Mondal said: "She is free spirit. She has a good command over her subject. This college has not had any principal for long. We are happy to have her as our principal."

- The college ensures wide publicity and transparency in its admission procedure in UG and courses.

- Admission is conducted on the basis of semi online facility since 2013-2014 academic session.
- Merit is the sole criteria for admission. However, as per government norms seats are reserved for SC, ST, OBC (both A and B Category) and differently-abled students.

Administration is a vital part of educational institution and Krishnagar Women's College has always believed in progression through proper governance, leadership and management for a holistic development of the college. The major points in this regard are enumerated below:

- The teachers are involved in active research works of high quality which give proof to their academic mobility; administratively, the introduction of complete online office software has turned administration into a hassle-free and error-free process for all concerned.

CRITERION VIII: SWOC ANALYSIS (STRENGTHS, WEAKNESSES, OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES)

This will be treated in two sections as the four areas indicated comprise two binary sets. Strengths, for instance, cannot be separated, or considered in isolation from, weaknesses and vice versa. Opportunities and Challenges are, likewise, two sides of the same coin. Challenges are opportunities in disguise.

I. STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES I.I Strengths of the College

Traditionally we think of them in terms of the Four Pillars of the College.

- Pursuit of Excellence
- Commitment to Social Equality, with a preferential option for the poor.
- Character formation
- A spiritual vision of life, with emphasis on promoting a spirit of self-less service.

PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE implies-

- A robust work culture. All lectures/tutorials/labs are held. Work begins and ends on time. Students are accorded personal attention, based on need and willingness to be helped.
- Commitment to total transparency in admissions.
- An inspired sense of discipline
- A holistic idea of education that emphasizes the development of the total person in respect of every student. This is addressed through a large number of Academic Committees and Sub Committees that helps to organize high-quality co-curricular programmes all through the year which complements class-room transactions.
- Basic to the educational philosophy of Krishnagar Women's College is the insight that the learning environment needs to be both beautiful and clean. The College campus is hence a model of cleanliness.

COMMITMENT TO SOCIAL JUSTICE

The dogma entertained in the sphere of higher education is that Social Justice and Pursuit of Excellence are incompatibles. Social justice, as envisioned in the College, has two main components. First, is a preferential option for the upgradation of the poor and the backward. The second aspect of social justice is the justice that reflecting social realities does to the idea of education entertained by the College. The socio-economic realities of the nation, being represented in the learning milieu, have immense educational value. An institution that allows it to be a bastion only of social and economic privilege and elitism becomes an anaemic learning environment. Our experience is that the integration of social justice into the pursuit of excellence accounts for a great deal of our institutional dynamism.

CHARACTER FORMATION

Character is understood in Krishnagar Women's College as the discipline of organizing oneself according to certain objective values, norms and principles. Students are encouraged to-

- Be responsible, regular and punctual at work.
- Develop the capacity to think objectively and discuss freely.
- Courteous conduct, especially to teachers and non-teaching staff in general.
- Inculcation of the spirit of service.
- To build an attitude of respect towards the environment, we keep our environment litter free and clean. Students respect the inviolability of the campus.
- An outlook on life based on equality and free from discrimination of any kind.

- Excellent student-teacher relationship. The availability of teachers outside classroom and working hours to guide and to counsel.

THE SPIRITUAL VISION OF LIFE

- We believe that education, though secular in content, is a spiritual in character. Pursuit of excellence stands on the foundation of spirituality. It is this sustains the robust work-culture in the College.
- Spirituality ensures that we do not remain stuck with a superficial and shallow outlook on life.
- Students are encouraged and enabled to think of life from an enlarged perspective as well as remain linked to the social realities of the country.
- Even the sense of responsibility we celebrate towards the environment is an aspect of spirituality. There is, besides, a synergy between spirituality and character-formation.

I.II WEAKNESSES

We are acutely aware of our weaknesses, which are many. Any institution that is truly geared to the pursuit of excellence cannot be otherwise. As the American poet Robert Frost says, “And miles to go before we sleep....”

- The first drawback was our post NAAC sloth, which took the College some extra time to prepare itself for reaccreditation.
- We are, financially, a poor institution. Any institution that opts to move along the straight and narrow path has to be. The management of the institution finds it difficult to invest into the continued growth and development of the College.
- The submission of 50% tuition fee generated from students to the Government is further depleting the resources of the College.
- We are continuing inspite of various infrastructural lacunas, like almost dilapidated electrification, which cannot be undertaken solely by the College Fund without being supplemented by either UGC or State Government Grants.
- While the facilities we have are moderate, we need additional facilities like conference hall, seminar rooms, a large enough auditorium, a well-equipped automated office under one roof, and so on.

OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

I. OPPORTUNITIES

- The Institution being a Women’s College can exploit a lot of Government Funds in the coming years.
- The College is well poised to take advantage of the various scheme on offer from the UGC for development and upgradation of facilities.
- There is immense scope for starting new courses.

II. CHALLENGES

- The challenge of multi-disciplinarity.

- The challenge to add significantly to our infrastructure and to add to the basket of courses we offer.
- To maintain the balance in life and in education.
- In a world where women are facing more and more challenges, we feel our most acute concern is not only to prepare their mind but also their might and capabilities through introduction of various martial art and self defensive curriculums.
- To grow without outgrowing oneself; that is, to grow without compromising the character and culture of the College.

It is increasingly difficult to effectively implement the evaluation reforms of the university and those initiated by the institution because of following reasons: With the introduction of 1+1+1 system of evaluation, University exams gets unnecessarily prolonged; which coupled with Elections or other impediments taking away a major chunk of teaching days.

Yet evaluation reforms of the university and the college are moderately ensured through regular interaction with the affiliating university, the Controller's Office of the affiliating university in particular. Many of the teachers set papers, moderate the questions papers and evaluate the answer scripts both in the capacity of Head Examiners and examiners. Some of the teachers are also members of the Board of Studies of their respective departments in the university; they attend the BOS (both UG) meetings and offer their suggestions on matters of evaluative reforms.

36. SWOC (Strength/ Weakness/ Opportunities/ Challenges) analysis of the departments and Future plans: (table wise)

Strengths	Weaknesses
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A group of highly qualified motivated faculty members. They are competent enough to teach fundamental aspects of the subject which are enhanced by research, practice and analysis of care and distinct areas of specialization. They demonstrate their expertise and commitment in each and every aspect. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Due to vacancy of sanctioned post and absolute lack of Guest/Part-time teachers the faculty is subject to excessive work loads. Consequently, students receive attention though sufficient, appears less than the level the faculty deems appropriate and ideal. • For poor external infrastructural support

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students are very promising. They have keen interest in the subject. They make the teaching learning process in the class room situation alive. • The department comprises of female students only. Ambience is always maintained keeping in mind the point of stress on women empowerment. 	such as lack of transport facility, excessive socio-economic pressure towards other commitments, sometimes students fail to respond to their class assignments perfectly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is no Group-C/ Group-D staff exclusive for our department.
Opportunities	Challenges
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Good infrastructure. ✓ Very cooperative student body. ✓ Good ambience for female students. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ To pursue quality teaching by creating meaning and relevance in teaching learning situation with limited resources. ✓ To maintain an ambience fully comfortable for the female students. ✓ To provide special support to the students of minority and underprivileged group. ✓ To adopt strategies which would help the department rest assured that the way we teach is appropriate. It will be a further impetus to our endeavor.

OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Improvement and extension of the existing Language Laboratory . ✓ The College had earlier applied to the Higher Education Department for introducing PG Course in English, but due to infrastructural shortcomings and inadequate teaching posts, the proposal did not meet with success. However, creation of new posts and adequate infrastructural facilities may help opening of PG Course in near future. ✓ Two full –time teachers are engaged in research work and post-doctoral projects. The teachers are encouraged to participate in Seminars and get their articles published in peer-reviewed journals. ✓ Publication of departmental journal with ISSN may open up opportunities for students and teachers to make the best use of their potential. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ To motivate the students to be regular in classroom and to make them avail the library facilities is really one of the challenges faced by the department. ✓ To encourage the students to publish wall magazine exclusively on their own is another challenge to combat with.

- Creation of new posts to facilitate the move.
- Organizing UGC funded National Seminar in the coming Academic session.

Table 16

Strengths	Weaknesses
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A group of highly qualified motivated faculty members. They are competent enough to teach fundamental aspects of the subject which are enhanced by research, practice and analysis of core and distinct areas of specialization. They demonstrate their expertise and commitment in each and every aspect. • Students are very promising. They have keen interest in the subject. They make the teaching learning process in the class room situation alive. • The department comprises of female students only. Strengths	Weakness
------------------	-----------------

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The subject is increasingly becoming popular among young women of the district as the number of applicants has been increasing every year. • Good employment scope for graduates of the subject and teachers are dedicatedly engaged in grooming them for job opportunities through career counselling sessions. • The student-teacher ratio enables close interaction with the students to enable them to critically think through contemporary governance issues and identify the existing challenges. • The enthusiastic participation of students in departmental activities like the eminent persons lectures, educational tours, wall magazine publications and student seminars that are interspersed with regular classes encourage the teachers to jointly explore new themes through varied teaching methods that help sustain the interest of the students throughout the academic session. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The department lacks separate rooms for classes and lack of ICT based facilities prevents students from browsing online sources and research data. • The location of the college hinders rural area based families from sending their girls for education. • Not enough exposure for the students to attend seminars, lectures and workshops organised in Kolkata, home to renowned think tanks that promote and encourage research. • Students have weak communication skills that are a serious impediment to their academic engagements.
Opportunities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Departmental library needs to be 	Challenges <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regular attendance in classes

34. SWOC (Strength/ Weakness/ Opportunities/ Challenges) analysis of the departments and Future plans: (table wise)

Table 18

Strengths	Weaknesses
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A group of highly qualified, motivated faculty members. They are competent enough to teach fundamental aspects of the subject which are enhanced by research, practice and analysis of core and distinct areas of specialization. They demonstrate their expertise and commitment in each and every aspect. • Students are very promising. They have keen interest in the subject. They make the teaching learning process in the class room situation alive. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students who after being graduated from this college wish to study in post graduate level in this institution creates a disproportionate level of responsibilities and demands on the faculty members. • Due to lack of sufficient number of posts sanctioned in the department, the faculty is subject to excessive work loads. Consequently, students receive attention though sufficient, appears less than the level the faculty deems appropriate and ideal. • For poor external infrastructural support such as lack of transport facility, excessive socio-economic pressure towards other commitments, sometimes students fail to respond to their class assignments perfectly. • There is no Group-C staff exclusive for our department.
Opportunities	Challenges
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Good infrastructure. ✓ Very cooperative student body. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ To pursue quality teaching by creating meaning and relevance in teaching learning situation with limited resources. ✓ To maintain an ambience fully comfortable for the female students. ✓ To provide special support to the students of minority and underprivileged group. ✓ To adopt strategies which would help the department rest assured that the way we teach is appropriate. It will be a further impetus to over endeavour.

35. Future plans (point wise)

The Department aims at focusing on the following points:

- Post-creation (teaching and non-teaching).
- More updated, improved outlook in class room presentation.
- More reflection on the relevance of the curriculum.
- Invention of resources.

35. SWOC

STRENGTHS:

01. Though Krishnagar Women's College started in the year 1958 Chemistry Honours Course could not be introduced till 2010. We are privileged to have the sanction of University of Kalyani and Higher Education Department to Honours Course from the Academic Session 2010-11. This step has enabled the students of rural areas to get an opportunity to study Chemistry Honours in our college and they have evinced keen interest in the subject over the years.
02. The Department has a well-equipped laboratory with modern equipment having dedicated staff to help the students. The college has a good library having rich collection of books on different subjects for the benefit of students and teachers.
03. The teaching methodologies have also improved with the introduction of Over Head Projector. From time to time the services of experts in their respective areas on the subject are requisition to impart knowledge to the students on latest developments taking place in the country. Seminars are also organized to keep the student abreast of the time.
04. The students of the college are privileged to have the services of its committed and dedicated faculty even beyond classroom. Strict discipline and regularity are meticulously followed with motivation to work hard with sincerity and diligence. Every effort is given to develop their skill and talent in a planned and systematic way intended to enable to pursue future higher courses of study in the diverse specialized fields.
05. College authority and other Departments extend help, co-operation and guidance to us in all matters, where necessary.

WEEKNESSES:

01. A few deficiencies continue to persist in the Department. One of the important deficiencies is absence of permanent teacher in Inorganic and Physical Chemistry. However, the department with the help of the college authority has engaged Guest Lecturers for the convenience of the students. The college is striving hard to overcome the hurdles.
02. The laboratory space is inadequate and needs to be augmented following starting of under graduate Honours course. There is no permanent laboratory attendant in the department.
03. Students face problems in lending books from library.
04. The department does not have a dedicated classroom equipped with modern gadgets. Creation of such a classroom will ensure a better teaching environment.
05. The college hires the services of reputed teachers occasionally which is not adequate. It would be better if more professionals are invited for this purpose.

OPPORTUNITIES:

01. Our college is a reputed women's college in the district having largely rural population mostly belonging to the under privileged class. Dissemination of higher education among poorer people particularly belonging to SC/ST/OBC-A/OBC-B is very helpful. The starting of under graduate honours course in Chemistry is a successful step in that direction. If infrastructure of the college in terms of faculty, supporting staff, laboratory and opportunity for placement are ensured, meritorious rural women will come forward to avail the opportunities of higher education.

02. Kalyani, Barrackpore and Hooghly industrial belts are not far off from Krishnagar. In these industrial areas, many chemical and pharmaceutical industries are functioning. The Chemistry department of this college may explore avenues to begin the work of product development in collaboration with their industries under financial assistance from appropriate authority.
03. The department is planning to start career counseling classes for the students. In these classes, stress will be given to make them aware of the future jobs available in the Govt. of both Central/ State, Public Sector Undertakings and Private enterprises and the prospects of self-employment. This scheme will help them in finding their employment opportunities.

CHALLENGES:

01. From the last decade of 20th century, there has been phenomenal progress in computer science and information technology, opening lakhs of jobs in various sectors with better remuneration and working conditions. This has resulted in the tremendous increase in the flow of admission of students in the technical stream and computer science. Interest of students in the study of core subjects of basic science is on the wane. This is grave threat. Wide publicity is required to make the students aware that study in core subject still holds for substantial employment opportunities, with bringing necessary reforms in the study of core subjects at par with technical subjects.
02. During the past few years, there has been a spurt in public and private finance in the technical educational area, thereby facilitating its growth at an unprecedented level. Such investment has, however, not taken place in the study of core subjects at undergraduate level degree colleges.
03. Campus recruitment is now a buzz word in technical colleges and B Schools. If such opportunity is made available in degree colleges, students will find interest in core science subjects and may well compete with technical colleges.
04. Infrastructure at the district level such as communication, road, educational facilities, health services, entertainment avenues is required to be developed to attract good faculty and students.

FUTURE PLANS:

01. To set up a dedicated class room equipped with latest gadgets for students.
02. To invite expert professionals/teachers from reputed college/university to motivate and inspire students for higher education.
03. To introduce career counseling classes to make the students aware of the opportunities available now in Govt. Sector/ Public Sector Undertaking/Private Sector and abroad in addition to teaching profession.
04. To undertake excursions of our students to colleges/Universities in other states to know the development/changes taking place across the country.
05. To explore avenues to start campus recruitment by taking up the matter with stake holder

35. SWOC (Strength/ Weakness/ Opportunities/ Challenges) analysis of the departments and Future plans: (table wise) OPENING HONOURS.

Strengths	Weaknesses
Being a science teaching department, this department gets good students from other department.	There is no Hons. in Physics thus many meritorious students can't get admitted in this subject in this college.
Opportunities	Challenges
All Teaching and Non-teaching staffs of this college are very co-operating. Financial assistance from govt. is also good.	Being at a remote town from Kolkata it is not easy to arrange seminars by eminent faculties and research workers on current topics of interest.

36. Future plans (point wise) :- 1) To open Honours in Physics.

2) Postgraduate courses in Physics.

Above plans require sufficient no. of teachers and also several classrooms and Laboratories.

Section H: Post-Accreditation Initiatives

- The college was accredited with Grade B++ (82.5%) in Cycle I of NAAC Accreditation on May 20, 2005. The Peer Team suggested some major points for quality enhancement and maintenance of the institute. As the first necessary measure for quality assurance, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) was established on 17/12/2005. During the next five years, the IQAC took a major role in the quality enhancement and maintenance of the institute. It emerged as the regularly functioning unit to sustain the quality of academic excellence. It has prepared AQARs of the college of four subsequent academic sessions and submitted those in time as far as practicable.
- Further two new Honours courses were introduced.
- Physics Electronics Lab, a major suggestion of NAAC Team is about to be implemented.
- The Office has also been fully automated.
